Opposition form

Part 1

Relevant questions
1. Relevance and subject of the degree project
   - Relevance for the education?
   - Does the study deepen the education?
   - Relevant aim/problem?
   - Is the aim reached?
   - Is new knowledge gained?

2. Theory / Literature / Background
   - Relevant references?
   - Theory presented and analyzed?
   - Knowledge within the area?
   - Is the problem clearly defined?

3. Method
   - Is the selection of method discussed?
   - Are materials and methods relevant?

4. Results / Discussion and Conclusions
   - Results are presented correctly with analysis of errors / possible sources of errors?
   - Results are analyzed and discussed?
   - Critical analysis?
   - Reasonable and relevant conclusions?
   - Conformity in aim / problem / results / conclusions?
   - Are suggestions for future work included?

5. Report / Formal matters
   - The report is in accordance with instructions for writing of reports
     (figures, references, key words, tables, etc.)?
   - Front flyleaf– informative?
   - Abstract – contains all relevant information?
   - Abstract in English?
   - Reference system and handling of references (especially photos, drawings, diagrams etc.)
   - Are concepts and terminology clearly accounted for?
   - Are the definitions/terminology correct?
   - Layout

6. Language
   - Good language?
   - Readability?

7. Creativity
   - Creative choice of subject, disposition, conclusions
   - Possible to publish in a scientific journal?
8. Content
- Good disposition?
- Is the reader guided well through the work?
- Distribution: report – appendices?
- Appropriate amount of content?

9. Other aspects (e.g. ethics, economy, health, environment, security)

Hand in this list to the examiner the same day as the opposition takes place!

Part 2

Judgement of the opposition
(Feed-back to the opponent from the examiner)
- Overall view/understanding of the project?
- Examination of the aim and research question?
- Discussion of the language
- Ability to put forward negative/positive criticism?
- Ability to create a positive atmosphere around the opposition?
- Other issues